In Bonhoeffer as Youth Worker, Andrew Root seeks to write a book that is "a gift to youth workers, showing them that their calling stands on the broad shoulders of Bonhoeffer" (from the preface), but also to give Bonhoeffer scholars a look at how central youth work was to Bonhoeffer's ministry, a fact often overlooked. Root does a good job of the second aim, but the strength of this book is definitely in the application of Bonhoeffer's life and work for the modern day youth minister.
