Le Corbusier and the architectural promenade by Samuel, Flora

(Le Corbusier, 1942) The "promenade architecturale" - the observer's pathway through the built space - is a central element of Le Corbusier's architectural and city planning designs. It is the sequence of images that unfolds before the eyes of the observer as he or she gradually advances through the structure.

Le Corbusier and the Architectural Promenade by Samuel::

Flora Samuel has played a major role in developing this position, not least in Le Corbusier: Architect and Feminist (2004). Her new book stretches the argument further than it has gone before. The first part of the book recaps Samuel's earlier writings to re-establish the validity of the mystical Corb. The second part introduces the idea of the "architectural promenade". Le Corbusier referred ...
