This book dealt with a lot of things like abuse, slavery, gangs, and poverty-causing debt. All of the subjects, I thought, were kind of mature for a book written for ten-year-olds, but it was written in a very tasteful fashion meant for a younger audience. 2.Plot: The whole plot was really good and the ending was really well done.

Dead Mans Cove is along the trail to Cape Disappointment Lighthouse. It can be seen from the trail, and is just a few steps off the trail (a bit of a slope), but only a few people take the time to stop. It is a very pretty small beach with tree-covered slopes on two sides, a cliff on one side, and the beautiful blue ocean in front. A perfect ...
