Flat Stanley was born in 1964 when author Jeff Brown wrote the first book about Stanley Lambchop. In his first adventure, Stanley's father hangs a large bulletin board above his bed for displaying his pictures and posters. Sadly, during the night, the board falls...flattening Stanley in his sleep. Stanley survives, and the rest is legend!

Flat Stanley: His Original Adventure! - Scholastic

Flat Stanley is flat because a large pin-board fell on him in bed. This means he can get up to all sorts of adventures - he's flown as a kite, is posted in an envelope to visit a friend and catches a museum thief by pretending to be a painting! As Flat Stanley has been around for a while, the language is pretty traditional/ formal.
