Frankenstein Quotes: Chapters 1-2 | SparkNotes. I am by birth a Genevese, and my family is one of the most distinguished of that republic. He strove to shelter her, as a fair exotic is sheltered by the gardener, from every rougher wind, and to surround her with all that could tend to excite pleasurable emotion in her soft and benevolent mind. She continued with her foster parents, and bloomed in their rude abode, fairer than a garden rose among dark-leaved brambles.

moderation. I determined to go without a guide, for I was well-acquainted with the path, and the presence of another would destroy the solitary grandeur of the scene. If you will comply with my conditions, I will leave them and you at peace; but if you refuse, I will glut the maw of death, until it be satiated with the blood of your remaining friends.

Frankenstein Quotes: Chapters 13-14 | SparkNotes. My days were spent in close attention, that I might more speedily master the language; and I may boast that I improved more rapidly than the Arabian, who understood very little. Was I, then, a monster, a blot upon the earth, from which all men fled and whom all men disowned? The injustice of his sentence was very flagrant; all Paris was indignant; and it was judged that his religion and wealth rather than the crime alleged against him had ...

Quotes from Frankenstein - BookRags.com

Frankenstein's insistence that there "can be no community" between him and the Monster is highly ironic: in a sense, the Monster and Frankenstein are the only community either of them has. The Monster is the only person who knows Frankenstein's secret, and Frankenstein is the only person who will listen to the Monster's story.

Frankenstein Isolation Quotes. Letter 2, Page 18 “But I have one want which I have never yet been able to satisfy, and the absence of the object of which I now feel as a most severe evil. I have no friend, Margret: when I am glowing with the enthusiasm of success, there will be none to participate in my joy; if I am assailed by disappointment, no one will endeavor to sustain me in dejection.”.

Frankenstein. And now my wanderings began, which are to cease but with my life. Never will I give up my search until he or I perish; and then with what ecstasy shall I join my Elizabeth and my departed friends. Behold on these desert seas I have found such a one; but I fear I have gained him only to know his value and lose him. He is dead who called me into being; and when I shall be no more, the very remembrance of us both will speedily vanish.
