Illusions of Fate may well be my favourite Kiersten White book to date. This beautifully written story is captivating, thrilling and intriguing. Coupled with a lush setting, and brilliant characters this is one book not to be missed! Jessamin leaves her island home to move Albion to further her studies. And it is not an easy place for her to be.

Illusions of Fate was my first even Kiersten White novel and it definitely has made me interested to read more. Jessamin is a great main character - she's witty, independent and headstrong. She wants to be in control of her own life and does not accept help easily.

Kiersten White is one of my favorite authors, the only book of her's that I have not read, besides this one, is The Chaos of Stars. I absolutely love the cover for Illusions of Fate, it is so gorgeous! I'm glad to hear that the book is good as well. I can't wait to read this one. Great review!
