Living Terraces in Ethiopia: Konso Landscape, Culture and Development. Terraced agricultural landscapes in Africa are remarkable feats of human engineering and social organization, enabling the conservation of soil and water and the cultivation of food. Indigenous terraced landscapes are all the more valuable because they have been produced by the people themselves and maintained for several hundred years, evidencing a valuable degree of sustainability.

Living Terraces in Ethiopia by Watson, Elizabeth E. (ebook)

ETHIOPIANS living in Scotland have welcomed government and charity support as their country endures the trauma of locust plagues, famine, drought and now war. Christian Aid Scotland, which has been working in Ethiopia for 30 years, has received Scottish Government funds to tackle swarms of locusts in Southern Ethiopia that are devastating crops.
