In a Green Economy scenario recognizing Nature's rights seems odd, since it is inconsistent with its ultimate goal: economic growth. In our alternative scenario, with Nature's rights recognized and a multiple valuation of Nature (not only economic), we would consider Nature as Patrimony, not as a basket of resources.

e Rights of nature is a legal and jurisprudential theory that describes inherent rights as associated with ecosystems and species, similar to the concept of fundamental human rights. The rights of nature concept challenges 20th-century laws as generally grounded in a flawed frame of nature as "resource", to be owned, used, and degraded.
