Because the SAT is a paper test (as opposed to a computer test), it's best to take the practice tests on paper. Also, make sure you do your scratch work directly on the test. Don't get out separate pieces of scratch paper to use since on the actual test you won't get any scratch paper (but will be allowed to take notes directly in your test booklet).

Every SATs paper is correctly named so you can easily download and print them at home. Past SATs papers are best given to children in the months before their real SATs. This way they can practise answering SATs-style questions in a timed environment. Once children have completed a SATs paper, check through their answers.

About KS3 SATs Papers. KS3 SATs papers were introduced in 2003. KS3 test papers challenged children in their Year 9 Maths, Science and English. Following a long battle with teachers, formal tests were dropped after 2009. KS3 Maths papers (together with English and Science) do still exist but they are written and marked within schools.
