A compilation of essays and interviews spanning 1983-1990, The Archaic Revival is a thoroughly satisfying overview of McKenna's signature ideas, ranging from the evolutionary importance of shamanism, time wave theory, "novelty," linguistics, deep ecology, the end of history, ufos as holographic projections from the future, and the symbiotic relationship between hallucinogenic plants and man.

The Archaic Revival by Terence McKenna - Goodreads
"The Archaic Revival" is the quicksilver poet-philosopher Terence McKenna presenting his ideas for a range of different audiences. He's the clearest he's ever been, making the book ideal for newcomers. The well chosen essays, conversations and interviews (with both sceptics and admirers) brilliantly showcase him and his ideas.

The Archaic Revival is McKenna 's preferred term for the New Age. He skilfully argues that what is necessary is a return of the psychedelic experience into human society via shamanism; as opposed to what he deems as a misleading term ' new ' , which, far from novelty, in fact postulates an environmental return for the species in its recognition of place within it.

The Archaic Revival Quotes by Terence McKenna
-Terence McKenna. A glimpse into Terence McKenna is a glimpse into one of the most brilliantly sophisticated, psychedelically philosophical mushroom oracles of the 20th century. Here Terence states, “ What was amazing about the mushrooms, and it continues to be amazing, is that it is animate, that there ’ s someone talking to you. This was actually a voice in the head, making sense, speaking English, and addressing the concerns that were most important to me personally.
