Synopsis. In 1895 twenty-six-year-old Bridget Cleary disappeared from her house in rural Tipperary. At first, some said that the fairies had taken her into their stronghold in a nearby hill, from where she would emerge, riding a white horse. But then her badly burned body was found in a shallow grave.

The Burning Of Bridget Cleary: A True Story: Amazon.co.uk ...

Bridget Cleary was burned to death by her husband in 1895. The reasons--as Bourke demonstrates--are difficult to tease out; it isn't clear ultimately whether Michael Cleary believed his wife was a changeling, or if in the aftermath of her (at least semi-accidental) death, maddened with grief and guilt, he came to believe that he believed she was a changeling.

'The Burning of Bridget Cleary: A True Story' by Angela Bourke

Bridget Cleary was an Irish woman killed by her husband in 1895. Her death is notable for several peculiarities: the stated motive for the crime was her husband's belief that she had been abducted by fairies with a changeling left in her place; he claimed to have slain only the changeling. The gruesome nature of the case – she was either immolated while still alive or set on fire immediately following her death – prompted extensive press coverage. The trial was closely followed by ...

Bridget Cleary - Wikipedia

In 1895, Michael Cleary beat, and then set his wife, Bridget on fire in their "salubrious Irish cottage." Michael took it upon himself to "exorcise" the Fairies from her with a good dose of cleansing fire and just for good measure, added an accelerant of paraffin oil from a near by lamp.
