Brust plays hopscotch with his readers ' expectations. Case in point: The Incrementalists , the new novel co-written by Steven Brust and Skyler White. I ' m not sure how to classify it (if such a thing is possible—or necessary—at all) but regardless, it ' s a pretty sharp departure from Brust ' s previous works.

The Incrementalists | Steven Brust | Macmillan

Incrementalists are dedicated to changing the human condition in small and barely observable ways by processes that amount to "neuro-linguistic programming."

They've been at it for a long time, never throwing the long bomb of a sudden and dramatic change, and never being the great person of history (unless such a thing happened in the deep time before earliest recorded history.)
