What Is the Mission of God's People?

The mission of God's people begins with the charge to be stewards of creation (God's representatives), as well as people who bless the earth as descendants of Abraham (God's representatives). The twin themes of Creation and Covenant show that Wright's is a view which encompasses the story of Scripture (see chs 2-4).

While missions can include those things, the ultimate mission of God's people is the glory of God. And God is glorified chiefly when His people live out the realities they have embraced in the gospel of Christ. This means Christians "have a mission that is as broad as the earth, for which we are commanded to care" (p. 265).

by Christopher J. Wright

Following on the heels of Wright's denser and more hermeneutically-oriented volume The Mission of God (IVP, 2006), The Mission of God's People (MGP) aims to answer the question, "What does the Bible as a whole in both testaments have to tell us about why the people of God exist and what it is they are supposed to be and do in the world?" (17). By "mission," then, Wright means the all-embracing purpose which encompasses everything that the people of God are called to be and do in ...
