The Narcissistic Family Diagnosis And
The author uses the words "narcissistic family" to describe a situation where a child's needs couldn't be met, for whatever reason - alcoholism; depression, etc. Very helpful to think of it this way and to consider her advice not to justify it with excuses about the parents' own upbringing or existing problems.

Sibling dynamics and behaviors in narcissistic families ...

A narcissistic parent is a parent affected by narcissism or narcissistic personality disorder. Typically, narcissistic parents are exclusively and possessively close to their children and are threatened by their children growing independent. This results in a pattern of narcissistic attachment, with the parent considering that the child exists solely to fulfill the parent's needs and wishes.
