The “ theology of the body ” refers to the study of who God is and who we are by reflecting on what God has revealed about the human body, especially in the context of Christian marriage. This may sound surprising since the study of God is supposed to be something spiritual, not material like a body.

Theology of the Body - Wikipedia

Over the course of studying and questioning – with the intent to understand and actively implement – the works of Pope St. John Paul II, particularly his Theology of the Body, a most beautiful and profound truth of the Catholic faith was revealed: human persons are gifted by God for each other, and therefore are called to receive one another as gift.

The Human Person as Gift: Theology of the Body ...

The “ Theology of the Body ” is St. John Paul II's integrated vision of the human person. The human body has a specific meaning, making visible an invisible reality, and is capable of revealing answers regarding fundamental questions about us and our lives: Is there a real purpose to life and if so, what is it?

The Theology of the Body

The theology of the body was a series of teachings given by Pope John Paul II from 1979 to 1984. These teachings used Christian Biblical scripture to explain how the human body is a physical manifestation of God ’ s message of redemption and hope for humankind.

intrinsic and absolute value.

Human Dignity in the Theology of the Body

The theology of the body consists of a searching analysis of biblical texts that reveal the mystery of the body, sexuality, and marriage at three critical "levels" of human experience: as man experienced them "in the beginning" before sin (Original Man); as man experiences them in human history affected by sin, yet redeemed in Christ (Historical Man); and as man will experience them in the resurrection of the body (Eschatological Man).

The Pope's Theology of the Body

The body has a language that is able to communicate something much more profound than information or ideas. What one does in his body reveals his very self, the "living soul" (p. 61). The body expresses the person and makes visible what is invisible, the spiritual dimension of man (pp. 56, 76).

Five Key Features of the Theology of the Body

In his Theology of the Body John Paul II digs deep into the meaning of being a human person based on Scripture. As a person with a body and soul, made in the image and likeness of God, we find the meaning of life through finding out what it means to image God and what our bodies have to do with it. We not only image God through the gift of free-will, but
