Instead, she finds his nephew – the less-than-welcoming Caleb Nelson – who is intent on seeing that she leaves town as soon as possible. When both Melanie and Caleb lay claim to the mercantile – there's bound to be "trouble in store" for them both! Trouble In Store by Carol Cox tells the story of two worlds colliding. It's the story of two individuals who, on the surface, seem nothing alike – but, who beneath it all, have plenty in common!

Carol Cox: Trouble in Store. June 23, 2013. June 29, 2013 by Guest Blogger. While doing research for my latest novel, Trouble in Store, I realized I needed to learn more about Native American cliff dwellings. As enjoyable as it is to study about historic sites in books and online, it's even more fun to visit them in person.
