As you would expect from two members of The State, Thomas Lennon & Robert Ben Garant ’ s Writing Movies for Fun and Profit is very entertaining. It is also full of good information for aspiring screenwriters hoping to write studio movies. The book is significantly less blithe than its Funny or Die promo video, but it is still light in tone. Topics run the gamut, from basic 101s, like story structure ( “ If Your Screenplay Doesn ’ t Have This Structure, It Won ’ t Sell, Or Robert McKee Can ... ”

Writing a movie review is easy and fun. We all love to watch a good movie and most of us would like to know what other people's opinions are about a movie before we waste a couple of hours or lives watching something we just don't enjoy. Therefore, writing a review of the movie you just watched will help someone else make a decision.
